

I am commenting on the telephone privacy law in Indiana. I understand that the FCC may be taking action to weaken that Indiana law. We have had far fewer solicitation calls since Indiana has created a list on which Indiana citizens could be listed refusing such calls. I urge that the FCC make no rulings which would weaken Indiana phone soliciting restrictions.